Tuesday - Friday 10am - 4pm

Saturday & Sunday 1pm - 4pm

The Curiosity Hour is a 60-minute facilitated reminiscence session that encourages conversation, memories and storytelling through historical objects and photographs of places from the past.

Designed specifically for adults living with dementia and their carers, these small-group sessions are led by trained History House team members in a welcoming and supportive environment.

Sessions are suitable for groups of up to 12 participants.

Choose from a range of engaging themes, including:

- Childhood
- Home life
- Park life
- Shed life

History House Museum is a dementia-friendly venue, and all programs are wheelchair accessible.

To book for a group contact the History House Museum on 9394 5670.
